

Symposium: Challenges in European Private law
University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Law, 7 October 2010

Invitation

On 7th October 2010 the Law faculty will host a symposium "Challenges in European Private Law". Europeization is the most important development trend in Private law of our time. It is a complex and multilevel process. The purpose of the event is to present as many different aspects and approaches in European Private law as possible. We kindly invite you to participate in this event. No admission. No registration necessary. Contact: damjan.mozina@pf.uni-lj.si

Programme

9.00

Welcome and introduction

Prof. Dr. Peter Grilc (University of Ljubljana) Dean of the Faculty of Law

9.10

Blue button and the future of European Private Law

Prof. Dr. Hans Schulte-Nölke (University of Osnabrück)

9.35

B2C internet contracts in European Private Law

Dr. Søren Sandfeld Jacobsen (Copenhagen Business School)

10.00

Consumer Sales Law: the Acquis and the future

Dr. Damjan Možina (University of Ljubljana)

Discussion
Coffee break

10.50

European Law on Non-Contractual Liability

Prof. Dr. Piotr Machnikowski (University of Wrocław)

11.15

CEN Standards for Services: A Hidden Source of European Private Law?

Dr. Christoph Busch (University of Osnabrück)

11.40

In Search of System Neutrality: Methodological Issues in the Drafting of European Contract Law Rules

Prof. Dr. Gerhard Dannemann (Humboldt University Berlin)

Discussion
Coffee Break

12.30

The formation of contracts in the Draft Common Frame of Reference – a law and economics perspective

Dr. Mitja Kovač (University of Ljubljana)

12.55

Diamonds and the Rough: On Uncultivated Growth of EU Competences

Dr. Matej Accetto (University of Ljubljana)

Discussion

13.40 End of conference