

STAFF PROFILE

Nounou Booto Meeti
Programme Officer: Francophone Africa

Nounou is a Congolese journalist and a graduate in judicial and private law. She has worked as a judicial reporter in the DRC and is a correspondent of the "Potentiel" a Congolese national newspaper. She has also published "Projusticia" an online newspaper on trial observation in the DRC.

A human rights activist, she is a co-founder of the "Women of Media for Justice in Congo". She has actively monitored human rights violation and violence against women in the DRC.

She has been the permanent secretary of Women Partners for Peace in Africa (WOPPA/DRC) which has helped women to participate in peace process in the DRC.

Since July 2009 Nounou has worked at the International Secretariat of IANSA with particular focus on Francophone Africa and the implementation of UN Security Council Resolutions on women, peace and security.