

Note No. 53 / 2026

The Embassy of Switzerland presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia and has the honour to inform the latter of the following. Slovene nationals are eligible candidates for the Master of Advanced Studies in European and International Governance (MEIG Programme) offered by the University of Geneva in cooperation with the United Nations Office at Geneva.

The Embassy further wishes to inform the Ministry, that the MEIG Programme aims at transferring knowledge about European and international governance, as well as to provide participants with the essential professional skills to become a leader in this specific field. (There are a few scholarships available for nationals from Official Development Assistant (ODA) recipient Countries, which includes Slovene Nationals.) More information on admission into the MEIG Programme is available on the following website: <https://www.meig.ch/>.

The Embassy wishes to advise that the next edition of the MEIG Programme will run during the 2027-2028 academic year, to begin in September 2027. There are three (3) deadlines for application to the Programme:

- First Deadline: 15 November 2026
- Second Deadline: 20 December 2026
- Third Deadline: 15 February 2027

Applications from candidates who apply for a scholarship must be filed before the Second Deadline on 20 December 2026.

Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs
of the Republic of Slovenia

L J U B L J A N A

The Embassy kindly asks the Ministry for a transmission of the information on the MEIG Programme to the relevant Departments.

The Embassy of Switzerland avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia the assurances of its highest consideration. next

Ljubljana, 2. 10. 2026

Enclosures:

- MEIG Programme Application Form 2027-2028
- MEIG Programme Scholarship Application Form 2027-2028
- MEIG Programme Brochure

Embassy of Switzerland in Slovenia

Note No. 53 / 2026

The Embassy of Switzerland presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia and has the honour to inform the latter of the following. Slovene nationals are eligible candidates for the Master of Advanced Studies in European and International Governance (MEIG Programme) offered by the University of Geneva in cooperation with the United Nations Office at Geneva.

The Embassy further wishes to inform the Ministry, that the MEIG Programme aims at transferring knowledge about European and international governance, as well as to provide participants with the essential professional skills to become a leader in this specific field. (There are a few scholarships available for nationals from Official Development Assistant (ODA) recipient Countries, which includes Slovene Nationals.) More information on admission into the MEIG Programme is available on the following website: <https://www.meig.ch/>.

The Embassy wishes to advise that the next edition of the MEIG Programme will run during the 2027-2028 academic year, to begin in September 2027. There are three (3) deadlines for application to the Programme:

- First Deadline: 15 November 2026
- Second Deadline: 20 December 2026
- Third Deadline: 15 February 2027

Applications from candidates who apply for a scholarship must be filed before the Second Deadline on 20 December 2026.

Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs
of the Republic of Slovenia

L J U B L J A N A

COPIE

The Embassy kindly asks the Ministry for a transmission of the information on the MEIG Programme to the relevant Departments.

The Embassy of Switzerland avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia the assurances of its highest consideration. Net

Ljubljana, 2. 10. 2026

Enclosures:

- MEIG Programme Application Form 2027-2028
- MEIG Programme Scholarship Application Form 2027-2028
- MEIG Programme Brochure