

THE ROLE OF HUMAN RIGHTS LAW IN INTERNATIONAL RESPONSES TO CULTURAL APPROPRIATION

SPEAKER

AYLA DO VALE ALVES

11 JUNE 2026, 14:00 CEST
(LJUBLJANA TIME)

HYBRID FORMAT: SENATE
ROOM AND ONLINE
FACULTY OF LAW,
UNIVERSITY OF LJUBLJANA

REGISTER NOW:

International efforts to regulate and prevent cultural appropriation have long explored cultural heritage law and intellectual property law as key avenues for heritage protection. While these frameworks offer important tools, they leave significant gaps that continue to disadvantage marginalised source communities. International human rights law can help fill those gaps by reframing appropriation as a violation of cultural identity, property and integrity.