

Inaugurational Seminar, 20 January 2014

PROGRAMME

Senate Room of the Faculty of Law, University of Ljubljana (Poljanski nasip 2, Ljubljana)

I. Topic:

Modern Aspects of Human Rights Protection in National, European and International Law

II. Organised by: Ass. Prof. Dr. Vasilka Sancin & Dr. Stefan Lorenzmeier

10:00-12:00 Panel 1: European Union's Accession to the ECHR

Chair: Ass. Prof. Dr. Vasilka Sancin

Panelists:

Ciril Ribičič:	Accession of the European Union to the ECHR, Now or Never
Stefan Lorenzmeier:	EU Accession procedure: Why so special?
Daniel Engel:	The future of the Bosphorus -presumption
Tina Korošec:	Co-respondent Mechanism: Adequate Solution for Allocation of Responsibility Between the EU and Its Member States?

12:00-14:00 Lunch break

14:00-16:00 Panel 2: Ensuring respect for Human Rights in the Member States and the EU

Chair: Dr. Stefan Lorenzmeier

Panelists:

Mirjam Škrk:	International Human Rights in the Case Law of the Slovenian Constitutional Court
Vasilka Sancin:	'Institutionalizing' Human Rights in Slovenia
Jennifer Ricketts:	Federalism of Human Rights Protection in Germany and the EU?
Désirée Rühle:	International Human Rights in the German legal order