

Pravna fakulteta
Univerza v Ljubljani

The Legitimacy of Global Institutions and International Representation

International Winter School with a Conference
28 November – 4 December 2017

Faculty of Law, University of Ljubljana
Poljanski nasip 2
1000 Ljubljana (Slovenia)

Winter School

New Challenges to Democracy

Program

Tuesday, 28 November (16h – 19h)

(Seminar Room 4)

Introduction to Democratic Theory

Wednesday, 29 November (16h – 19h)

(Seminar Room 4)

Quantifying Democracy and the Rule of Law

Friday, 1 December (16h – 19h)

(Seminar Room 3)

Authority & Legitimacy of Democratic Institutions

Monday, 4 December (9h – 19h)

International Conference “The Legitimacy of Global Institutions”

Teachers: Carolina Fernández Blanco (University of Girona), Veronika Fikfak (University of Cambridge & University of Ljubljana), Miodrag Jovanovic (University of Belgrade), Andrej Kristan (University of Girona & University of Ljubljana), María Victoria Inostroza (Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona), José Luis Martí (Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona), Matija Žgur (University of Palermo & University of Girona)

Participation: Participation at the Winter School is free of charge. Classes will be conducted in English. Materials will be provided to the participants of the Winter School prior to each session and they may be asked to read the materials in advance. Students that will participate in at least 80% of the courses will receive a Certificate of Attendance.

Applications: Interested students are required to apply for the Winter School at: globalinstitutions2017@gmail.com.